

NATURINA MACA super plus

NATURINA MACA super plus is a nutritional supplement that has been shown to improve sexual desire and performance, increase libido, and enhance your energy and endurance level.

Proper sexual function is one of the hallmarks of a full and enriching lifestyle. Unfortunately, various factors, including the complexities of modern life, stress, hormonal changes, medical conditions, medication usage and aging, all lead to reduced sex drive and poor sexual performance. These problems affect both men and women.

Maca is the primary ingredient in NATURINA MACA super plus. It is a small Andean root belonging to the radish family. This Peruvian herb has a 3,000 year old history as a powerful strength, libido and stamina enhancer. Maca is creating market demand in Japan, Europe and the U.S. and is poised to be a major botanical product on the international herbal scene.
